GHAANEWS

It's not too late to help Reinvent Cogswell - whose purpose is to create Cogswell Art Center. The campaign for the next phase of the project, to restore and upgrade utilities, is underway. Contribute by January 20 to garner matching funds. Your Board dreams of someday having a permanent space there! Please consider supporting this unprecedented opportunity for the arts community - no amount is too small and it's tax-deductible. You can send a check to Creative Haverhill, PO Box 205, Haverhill MA 01831, or you can donate through the website: <http://cogswellartcenter.org/index.html>.

The Annual Members Meeting at 1 PM on March 26 (at Buttonwoods) will include a forum on the Saturday Workshops. Our longtime monitor Mimi Johnson will be retiring in June, prompting us to take stock of what the workshops have provided and what direction we want them to take in the future. Plan to bring your thoughts to add to the discussion.

The GHAAs ArtisTree was taken home by Pamela Burroughs. We hope she enjoys our beautiful creation, and we look forward to her becoming a member.

Elizabeth Peck is recovering from carpal tunnel surgery on her left hand - we wish her well!

Members' Honors, Awards, Solo Exhibits

Cassie Doyon's sculpture WhimSea will spend the coming year in the Newburyport Art Associations's first annual outdoor sculpture exhibit in the new NAA Range Lights Community Sculpture Garden.

- Our wonderful sponsor Nunan's of Georgetown is hosting the second annual Paint-In during January. Painting in the greenhouse will happen on the four Sundays: January 8, 15, and 22 (10-2); the Exhibit (with most artists continuing to paint) will be January 29, 12 - 3 PM (set-up 10 - 12). Though we want to keep this event flexible for all interested in participating, we do need some sense of how many artists plan to paint and exhibit, and so ask you to register your best intentions by January 5. The form is HERE and on the website. HC Media is featuring the event on a monthly TV show What's Up Merrimack Valley?. Host Stacey Bruzzese interviewed artists Ann Jones and Susan Kneeland, and Linda Lukas of Nunan's on December 15.
